

A QUICK GUIDE TO CAREERS DURING CRISIS

TIP 1: EMBRACE THE ANXIETY

It's normal to feel anxiety related to searching for opportunities after Rollins. Consider making parallel plans that allow yourself to explore a variety of pathways.

CLICK HERE TO LEARN MORE

TIP 2: KEEP SEARCHING

Certain industries like entertainment, hospitality, and travel are experiencing short-term setbacks, but others like ecommerce, telecommunications, and software development are seeing gains. Don't stop searching and stay open-minded to new possibilities.

TIP 3: BE PATIENT

Recruiters are in the process of figuring out their new hiring timelines, so stay vigilant in seeking new, potentially remote openings that are being created every day. While you're waiting, refine your documents and practice virtual interviewing.

CLICK HERE TO LEARN MORE

TIP 4: LEARN ABOUT REMOTE WORK

Remote work is not a new concept; in fact, millions of employees worldwide already work virtually.

Read up on the benefits of working remotely so you are well prepared.

TIP 5: STAY IN IT!

It can be easy to give up during a volatile time, but reach out to your Rollins support networks for encouragement and guidance. The Career Center has expanded appointment availability just for you!

careercenter@rollins.edu
407.646.2195

CHECK OUT THESE RESOURCES:

Jobs hiring now!

Benefits of remote work!

Job-seeking during Covid!

Virtual internships!

Career Center FAQ Site

TIP 6: IF YOU'RE A SENIOR, WE'VE GOT YOU!

From virtual employer spotlights to a virtual career fair on April 22nd, we are providing multiple online opportunities for you to connect with companies.

Rollins
CENTER FOR CAREER
& LIFE PLANNING

TIP 7: CHECK OUT THE CAREER CENTER FAQ

We have a variety of resources and services available now!

