LANDSCAPE OF THE WORLD

Upton Abbey: An Improvised Comedy of English Manors

Researched by,
Nicole Colangelo
KNOWING THE TERRITORY

WILTSHIRE

- Wiltshire lies along the south/southeast of England. This is where our estate, and most of our show will take place.
- Stonehenge is within Wiltshire
- Weather (“Southern England, Climate”)
  - The coldest month is January with July is the warmest
  - Statistics (Some of these are after this time period)
    - -13.8°C (7.16°F) Marlborough, Wiltshire 3 January 1979
    - -18.2°C (-0.76°F) Lacock ,Wiltshire 13 December 1981
  - It snows somewhere between 12-20 days a year
  - For more specific information on weather visit, the Met Office’s page on Southern England: Climate
- Flora, Fauna & Wildlife (“UK Wildlife” & “Chalk Grassland”)
  - Flora & Fauna in Chalk Grasslands
    - Dandelions, Orchids, Hawthorn, Horse Chestnut, Violets, Pansies
  - Flora & Fauna in United Kingdom
    - Lilies, Daffodil, Cottongrass, English oak, Blackberry, Oaks
  - Animals in Chalk Grasslands
    - Red Fox, Rabbit, Turtle Dove, Magpie, Crows, Ravens, Wren, Bumblebees, Seven Spot Ladybug, Large Blue Butterfly, Garden Spider

- Animals in United Kingdom
  - Badger, Hedgehog, Deer, Red squirrel, Pigeon, Mallard, Pheasant, Robin, Fireflies, Dragonflies

TORRINGTON (GREAT TORRINGTON)

- Torrington lies in south England
- Similar climate to Wiltshire
● Buildings and Locations
  ○ Main Train Station: Kings Cross Station
  ○ St. Paul’s Cathedral
  ○ Big Ben
  ○ British Museum
  ○ Palace of Westminster
  ○ Buckingham Palace

● London at this time was a urban center for the country

REFERENCES