THE CORNELL FINE ARTS MUSEUM AT ROLLINS PRESENTS:

COUNTDOWN
Works of Art by the Class of 2010

WINTER PARK, FL – The Cornell Fine Arts Museum, in collaboration with the Department of Art and Art History at Rollins College, is proud to announce the premiere of Countdown, an exhibition showcasing the work of five senior art majors from the Class of 2010. An opening reception will be held on Friday, April 23, from 5-7 p.m. The exhibition will be on view from April 24-May 9.

The final show of the seniors' undergraduate careers, Countdown represents the culmination of their artistic efforts and accomplishments over the past four years as students of painting, photography, and graphic design.

Tayler Bolding, 22, from Merritt Island, FL, uses the classic pin-up icon as a platform for discussing today's body image issues. Andrew Cohen, 21, of Marietta, GA, arranges photographs that depict the invasive presence and over-consumption of alcohol on college campuses. Marie Patrick, 24, from Les Cayes, Haiti, explores the multifarious relationship between humans and their technological extensions. Joy Powell, 22, of Apopka, FL, illustrates the powerful connection between music, imagery and imagination. Eric Short, 22, from Amarillo, TX, creates fashionable tableaux through the lens of documentary portraiture and broken narratives.

The students also worked together to design the publicity materials and to promote the opening of their show as emerging artists in the community.

The exhibition was juried by Professor E. Brady Robinson of the University of Central Florida, Professor Shona Macdonald of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, and Alya Poplawsky, CFAM Curator of Education and Special Projects. The jurors' selections exemplify the students' talents, technical prowess and ingenuity.

Gallery hours: Tues. – Sat. 10:00 am to 4:00 pm., Sun. 1:00 to 5:00 pm. Admission: $5.00 for adults. FREE to CFAM members, Rollins College faculty, staff, all students with current ID, and children. The Cornell Fine Arts Museum is located on the campus of Rollins College near downtown Winter Park. For additional information please call 407-646-2526 or cfam.rollins.edu.
