The Cornell Fine Arts Museum at Rollins College presents

WARHOL WEDNESDAYS

7-10 pm Every Wednesday from June 10 - July 8

This summer series of museum social events at the Cornell runs for five consecutive Wednesday nights beginning June 10. Inspired by the exhibition, Andy Warhol Personalities, WARHOL WEDNESDAYS is presented in the spirit of gatherings at Warhol's legendary Factory, the hip hangout for artsy types and the Warhol Superstars, a menagerie of free-thinkers who helped him create his paintings, starred in his films, and developed the famous creative atmosphere of the Factory. A meeting place of artists and musicians including Lou Reed, Bob Dylan, Truman Capote, Mick Jagger, Salvador Dalí and Allan Ginsberg, the Factory was covered with tin foil and silver paint, representing the decadence of the scene as well as the proto-glam of the early sixties.

$10 gets you into the Cornell Fine Arts Museum on these select Wednesday nights to experience Factory Fun accompanied by D.Js and a cash bar.

(Free to members. $30 student membership includes a free catalogue or t-shirt.)
