Canvas Data Retention Policy

Purpose

This policy explains how long courses and associated data will be available on Canvas. Its purpose is to provide adequate access to previous courses while preserving the storage, speed, and performance of our Canvas system.

Canvas Retention Policy

All academic courses will remain accessible for two years after completion. This includes all course content and student data (e.g., student work and grades). After two years, courses will be unavailable.