

IT'S NOT TOO LATE! SPECIAL FUNDING AVAILABLE FOR ANTHROPOLOGY MAJORS

May in Morocco

Experience firsthand the rich history and diverse cultures of Morocco. Compare globalization from the small Saharan town of Sidi Ifni to the cosmopolitan city of Fes.

Itinerary Highlights – In this eleven day, 2-credit field study held in May 2013, you will visit nonprofits working on sustainable development (Sidi Ifni) see the world's second largest mosque (Casablanca), conduct a service learning project with girls at a special boarding school for girls who are the first in their families to get a secondary education, and tour the historic 1200-year-old city of Fes.

Requirements: This field study will be linked to a spring course, ANT/PHI 305, "Women and Globalization." Students enrolled for this course will be given priority for admission to the field study.
