

Need help identifying international work options? Think GOINGLOBAL: Your comprehensive “one stop” international career resource. Packed with country-specific career information, GOINGLOBAL’s Country Guides have been developed by country-specific career specialists, are updated annually, and feature recommended web sites and detailed resource descriptions. GOINGLOBAL is also an excellent resource if you plan to participate in an international internship.

FEATURES

Country Career Guides

Learn about country-specific:

- ❖ Industry and Employment Trends
- ❖ Top Companies
- ❖ Business & Networking Groups
- ❖ Embassy Listings
- ❖ Financial Considerations
- ❖ Work Permits & Visas
- ❖ Resume/CV Guidelines
- ❖ Interviewing Tips
- ❖ Cultural Advice

H1B Plus Database

- ❖ Contains 400,000+ companies that have applied for H1B permits for employees
- ❖ Search by job title, occupation, employer, location, and wage
- ❖ Excellent resource for an international student seeking work in the U.S. after graduation

Other Features Include:

- ❖ Job Postings and Internship Listings
- ❖ Key Employer Directory
- ❖ Career Guides for Major Cities in the USA and Canada

GETTING STARTED

How do I access GoinGlobal?

- ❖ Login to your Handshake account and find the link for GoinGlobal in the resource library under request an appointment.
- ❖ Don't have a Handshake account? Visit the Office of Career & Life Planning website for instructions: www.rollins.edu/careercenter

rollins.edu/careercenter

170 W. Fairbanks Building - 1st Floor | 407.646.2195 | careercenter@rollins.edu

