

- Wells' Built Museum
 - <https://www.wellsbuilt.org/>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/wellsbuilt/?igshid=9p8zqnptpxzw>
 - Originally the Wells' Built Hotel, the venue provided lodging for African Americans during segregation when accommodations were not available elsewhere in Central Florida. In February 2000, the location was added to the U.S. National Register of Historic Places and has been converted into a museum housing memorabilia of Orlando's African American community and displays on the Civil Rights movement along with African art and artifacts.
- Hannibal Square Heritage Center
 - <https://www.hannibalsquareheritagecenter.org/>
 - https://www.instagram.com/hannibalsquare_heritagecenter/?igshid=6rb1h8jg7qp6
 - The Hannibal Square Heritage Center was established in 2007 as a tribute to the past, present, and future contributions of Winter Park's historic African-American community. The Center is a product of a partnership by Crealdé School of Art, in partnership with residents from the Hannibal Square community (West Winter Park) and the City of Winter Park.
- Hannibal Square Land Trust
 - <https://hannibalsquareclt.org/>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/hannibalsquareclt/?igshid=1e9aan59ksvkd>
 - The Hannibal Square Land Trust was created to develop, rehab, and preserve permanently affordable housing for low- to moderate-income families, and to promote financial education, economic inclusion and neighborhood stability.
- Healthy Eatonville Place
 - <https://www.adventhealthdiabetesinstitute.com/programs/weight-management-healthy-living/healthy-eatonville-place>
 - Eatonville was established in 1887 after being settled by former slaves two decades after the Civil War ended and was the first all-Black city to be incorporated in Florida. Through community collaboration, Healthy Eatonville Place promotes healthy living to curb diabetes after a community study revealed the prevalence of diabetes in the community. The facility doubles as a research center dedicated to finding better ways to prevent the disease, and provides a "place of trust" empowering Eatonville residents to live healthier and better.
- Eatonville Cultural and Heritage Center
 - <https://www.eatonvillechf.com/>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/eatonvillechf/?igshid=pyvoyn1ffop5>
 - Eatonville was established in 1887 after being settled by former slaves two decades after the Civil War ended and was the first all-Black city to be incorporated in Florida. The Eatonville Cultural and Heritage Foundation Inc. nourishes cultural and creative opportunities in the community. The Foundation accomplishes this by way of visual arts, performing arts, culture, environment, health, human services, and community development in the Historic Town of Eatonville.

- Upward Bound
 - <https://www.rollins.edu/pre-collegiate-programs/upward-bound/>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/rollinsub/?igshid=vp9mkc43lza2>
 - The Upward Bound program is a year-round program for motivated students from low-income or first-generation families with academic potential who desire additional academic preparation, advisement, and encouragement to succeed in high school and later, in college.
- African American Chamber of Commerce
 - <http://www.blackcommerce.org/>
 - The African American Chamber of Commerce is the driving force and the preeminent resource in fostering economic success for Black and minority-owned businesses in Central Florida. The African American Chamber serves as the foundation for the four pillars supporting and uplifting member businesses throughout Central Florida: Advocacy, Access to Capital, Contracting, and Entrepreneur Training and Development.
- Boys & Girls Club
 - <https://www.bgccf.org/>
 - The Boys & Girls Club provides a safe and caring after-school experience for children from our region's most disadvantaged neighborhoods. The Club believe that every child, regardless of income or life circumstance, should be empowered to excel in school, become good citizens and lead healthy, productive lives.
- Lift Orlando, West Lakes Partnership
 - <http://www.liftorlando.org/>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/liftorlando/?igshid=1wuu9agy7zh21>
 - Lift Orlando was founded in 2013 by a group of business leaders partnering with residents to break the cycle of poverty through neighborhood revitalization. The West Lakes Partnership, born from the original project, seeks to build pathways to stability, power, and generational wealth alongside residents of West Lakes. The community development initiative was created by resident leaders to help ensure the preservation of its cultural heritage and the vision of a thriving community where its residents can live, work, learn and play.