

Duplication Fee Schedule

Duplication for Reference Purposes

Archives staff will photocopy or scan items in good condition at a cost of 10 cents per copy/scan. Scans will be created at a resolution of 150 ppi. Alternatively, researchers on-site may use a personal camera to take digital photographs of materials for reference purposes only at no cost.

Duplication for Publication Purposes

Researchers wishing to use materials from the Archives in publication, performance, exhibition, or broadcast must secure high-resolution copies from the Archives. Scans will be created at a resolution of 300 ppi or higher, depending on the requirements of the end use. Duplication fees for items used in publication are assessed according to intended use, the type of organization requesting use, and item type. Fees are for one-time, non-exclusive, single-language publication rights. Rates for uses not listed will be quoted upon request. All requests for reuse of duplicated items or a change in use must be submitted in writing to Wenxian Zhang (wzhang@rollins.edu), Head of Archives and Special Collections.

All researchers wishing to reproduce materials for publication must complete an Application for Permission to Publish, available on the Archives' website.

Commercial Use

Commercial use includes publication in a book, journal or magazine, or a poster or calendar.

Digital Scans (still images, text documents)

For video/film publication	$75.00	$35.00
For advertising	$100.00	$50.00

Fees for digital copies of audio, film, and video will be assessed on a cost-recovery basis, and will depend on the format and condition of the item.

Non-commercial Use

Non-commercial use does not incur a fee. This use includes Rollins College publications in any form; local or regional historical society use in journals, pamphlets or for display; and publications such as newspapers, where the publicity advantage gained outweighs the value of a fee.
