

Who

Who is a subject.

Who does things.

Whom

Whom is an object.

Things are done to whom.

THE TRICK!

Use who where you could use he/she.

Use whom where you could use him/her.

Who painted the roses red?

She painted the roses red?

examples

He gave the flowers to whom?

He gave the flowers to her?