- ★ Facilitated 4 weekly academic accountability groups (called The Office)
 - O We also collaborated with Dr. Sheri Boyd to offer two sessions of The Office that were targeted for students taking 100-level math courses. THANK YOU to our Office Coordinators: Anthony Bonilha, Emily Curran, Garrett Heinke, and Sophia Maehl.

Evaluating this year's data:

- * Compared to spring 2021, this semester we saw an increase in our total number of sessions and number of unique students who used our services. We also saw significant increases in the number of students who visited 2, 3, and 4 times over the course of the semester.
- ★ We continue to see engagement with our virtual tutoring options at roughly 35%.

Post-Visit Survey

We received 47 responses to our post-visit survey (which is sent to all students who meet with a tutor each week). This is significantly fewer responses than in previous semesters, so in the upcoming academic year we will explore additional assessment and evaluation methods.

KEY TAKEAWAYS: 37 of the 47 respondents indicated that they learned something during their session that they will use in the future. Respondents also tended to leave their session feeling more confident and encouraged in their academic work.

In order to assess our efficacy in creating a welcoming environment in which students feel a sense of belonging, we ask respondents to indicate how they felt before, during, and after their session with a tutor:

- Before their visit, students tended to feel: hopeful, confused, and nervous
- During their visit, students tended to feel: understood, welcome, and respected
- * After their visit, students tended to feel: relieved, encouraged, and confident

Access, Equity, and Inclusivity:

In fall 2021, we added survey questions pertaining to these important areas of DEIJ. We kept these questions in the spring semester, and we pursued additional means of eliciting survey responses (including posting fliers in the TWC space with QR codes that students could scan to access the survey).

Please rate the extent to which you agree with the following statements (1=you completely disagree; 5=you completely agree):

Question	1	2	3	4	5	Total
I feel that I can relate to the peer tutors in the TWC.	1	0	4	7	26	38
TWC services are accessible to all Rollins students equally.	1	0	1	6	30	38
The Tutoring and Writing Center (TWC) is a safe and supportive space for students from historically disempowered populations.	1	1	4	6	26	38

Most respondents strongly agreed with these statements. However, this set of questions was optional, and was only answered by 38 respondents. Moving forward, we will continue to consider ways to better assess equity and inclusivity in the center.

Our full post-visit survey report is available by request.

This word cloud was generated from our appointment reports, which are written by our tutors after each session and submitted via EAB Navigate. In the word cloud, the larger a word is, the more frequently that word appears in the session reports.

Number of Cancellations: 529

* Cancellation reasons

Need to reschedule: 330Issue Resolved: 132

O Illness: 59

O Resolved with Advisor: 8

* Late-cancel no-shows (student canceled within 18 hours of appointment time): 185 (35% of total cancellations)

* True no-shows: 103

* We had significantly more cancellations this semester compared to spring 2021 (351). We also saw an increase in cancellations in fall 2021. For the upcoming academic year, we will revisit our scheduling policies and communications about cancellations in an effort to reduce this number.

Number of Appointment Requests (submitted through EAB Navigate): 128

- * Why do students submit appointment requests?
 - O They cannot find an available appointment at a time that works for their schedule.
 - O They want to schedule an appointment sooner than 18 hours in advance.
 - We do not have a tutor in place for their course.
 - This reason is rare; this semester, only 5 requests were for courses for which we did not offer tutoring.

As we look toward fall 2022, we will:

- * Pursue additional ways to elicit feedback from students about our services with particular attention to inclusivity, equity, and accessibility in the TWC.
- * Continue to assess how our services are meeting the needs of students in the Rollins community and explore ways that we can continue to innovate our offerings.
