

R-Wellness Committee Application

Mission

As a strategic partner with Rollins' leadership, the R-Wellness Committee's mission is to enhance awareness and help create and promote a healthy campus community in which to live, learn, teach, work, or visit.

Purpose

R-Wellness committee members serve in an advisory capacity to the Assistant Vice President of Human Resources and Risk Management by reviewing and making recommendations on selected practices, policies and procedures relating to promoting a healthy campus community. Members also provide input regarding the development of certain types of programs and serve as a source of thoughts, ideas, and opinions from the staff and faculty body of the College.

Committee Membership

The R-Wellness Committee is made up of Rollins staff and faculty representing various departments. The committee meets once a month, not including additional sub-committee projects and meetings. Members appointed will serve a two-year term with the option to renew their memberships.

Please complete this R-Wellness Committee Application if you are interested in serving on the committee.
